

RGS Research Cluster

PROFESSOR	RESEARCH AREAS	NAME of CLUSTER	DOCTORAL STUDENTS	ALUMNI
Bauer	migration, population economics, applied microeconometrics	Applied Microeconometrics, Labour & Population Economics, Health Economics	Basilio, Baumgarten, Burgard
Felder	health insurance, reimbursement of health care providers, competition in and regulation of health care markets		David, Flake, Paloyo Sossong
Frondel	applied econometrics in the fields of environmental, resource, and energy economics
Haisken-DeNew	applied labor economics, applied micro econometrics, wage structure, education, migration, welfare and income inequality and health economics		Klemm, Kind, Okoampah
Kraft	labor market economics, industrial organization, empirical economic research		Neimann
Ott	general issues of social policy (in particular the economics of the family), family policy, and health system
Schmidt	applied econometrics, in particular labor and population economics		Körner, Schmidt, Strupat		Brenner, Procher, Schurer
Schnabel	labor supply, wage determination, social security and early retirement, social service and unemployment insurance, savings behavior and private retirement arrangements, microeconometrics		Giesecke, Keese, Meng		Schmitz
Belke	international macroeconomics, monetary economics and European integration	Macroeconomics, Monetary & International Economics, Financial Markets	de Haan, Keil, Komilov
Busse	international trade, foreign direct investment, development economics
Clausen	macroeconomics, European economic and monetary union, international financial markets, general equilibrium models, quantitative economic research		Volz		Rausch
Kösters	monetary theory and policy; theory of business cycles and stabilization policy; currency, employment, integration
Krämer	Econometrics, public finance, social policy		Khudnitskaya, van Kampen		Azamo, Hanck, Stoimenov
Linnemann	fiscal policy, monetary policy, economic fluctuations, growth, empirical macroeconomics
Roos	Behavioural macroeconomics, experimental economics, empirical macroeconomics, regional economics, New Economic Geography
Schabert	Macroeconomics, International Macroeconomics, Monetary and Fiscal Policy		Niestroj		Bredemeier, Hörmann, Rieth
Südekum	International Trade, Economic Geography, Regional Labour Markets	Trax
Amann	game theory, auction theory, evolutionary game theory	Microeconomics, Game Theory, Mechanism Design, Public Finance	Keldenich, Yang	Gu, Heufer, Risse, Wenzel
Brosig	market design, experimental economics, game theory
Leininger	economic theory, in particular microeconomic theory, game theory, auction theory, public choice, industrial organization		Becker, Zheng
Richter	public finance, in particular taxes and social security systems; regional, educational and environmental economics		Braun
Schimmelpfennig	general problems in the fields of microeconomics, game theory and/or finance; public choice; cost estimation of natural monopoly; questions of privatization and regulation of railways, O-ring production functions
Upmann	labour market participation decisions, labour market negotiations, theory of taxation, strategic fiscal and environmental policies in open economies, interjurisdictional tax competition				